BOURBON FAIR A CERTAINTY.

The subscribers to the fund for re-organization of the Bourbon County Agricultural Association held a meeting in the law office of Clifton Arnsperger, Friday morning, and it was shown that the efforts of Messrs. Jos. M. Hall, C. M. Thomas, J. W. Davis and others had been rewarded with success, for a Bourbon County Fair this year is certainty.

It was stated at the meeting that a fund of $20,000 will be necessary to put the fair on a substantial and permanent basis. Of this amount $11,000 has been subscribed. A committee composed of Messrs. J. M. Hall, George Rassenfoss and C. M. Thomas was appointed to solicit additional subscriptions.

Messrs. J. D. McClintock, J. T. Hinton and J. W. Davis were appointed a committee to select suitable grounds and purchase same. Messrs. R. C. Talbott, C. M. Thomas, N. Kriener and C. Arnsperger were selected to draft articles of incorporation for the new Society.

All committees will report Friday, March 2, when officers will be elected. It is believed the new grounds will be located south of Paris on the L. & N. and interurban roads.

A committee was selected to confer with an architect to draw suitable plans for the necessary amphitheatre, floral halls, stables, booths, etc., and to get estimates of cost, etc.

WRECK ON L. & N.

Passenger train No. 2, running from Knoxville to Cincinnati, due in Paris at 3:30, was wrecked near London Friday afternoon, and did not reach here until 8 o'clock that evening.

The train was a few minutes behind time and was running about fifty miles an hour. While passing a short curve the engine left the track, taking with it the baggage coach and mail car. The smoking car was still on the track, but its trucks were all dragged to the rear of the car. The baggage car was turned across the track, the mail coach ran off to the side of the track and the engine was run several yards away from the track and turned completely over. Engineer Wm. Bradley, of Cincinnati, who is about 72 years of age, was found by the fireman still on his engine, his feet fastened and in an unconscious condition, with a large wound on the head and covered with blood. The mail clerk was slightly injured about the head and face, while the other passengers and crew escaped injuries of any note. Engineer Bradley was taken to the hospital at London and reports from there Sunday afternoon were that he had regained consciousness and was improving slowly. He is the oldest engineer on the road and holds the record for the fastest runner.

ELEGANT PARTIES.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ireland was the scene of two of the most elegant entertainments ever given in Paris when Mrs. Ireland was hostess to the Six Hand Euchre Club and the two whist clubs, the former on Friday afternoon and the latter on Saturday afternoon.

The house with its elegant furnishing was further adorned for the occasions with rich cut glass and silver vases and pitchers of sweet carnations in crimson and white, the color scheme for the parties. The reception hall, parlors and dining room which were all thrown together were a perfect bower of beautiful flowers. Mrs. Ireland was assisted in receiving her guests by her sister Mrs. T. E. Moore and the beautiful young daughter of the house, Miss Laura Clay. Miss Clay is a typical southern beauty of the brunette type and wore a simple girlish gown of pink mull and lace. The favors were all elegant and were highly prized by those who were fortunate enough to secure them.

The favors were won by the following:

Mrs. J. S. Wallingford, a hand painted plate; Mrs. James H. Thompson, an exquisite gold clock; Mrs. Brice Steele, a cut glass mayonnaise pourer; Mrs. Swift Champ, a silver bon dish; Mrs. W. G. Talbott, a cut glass and silver pomade jar; Mrs. T. E. Moore, a silver comport; Miss Nancy Clay, a tiny gold traveling clock; Miss Bessie Holladay, a cut glass and silver toilet box. The games were marked on white tally cards tied with big bows of red ribbon and with each tally the guests were presented with bunches of carnations and violets. Individual ices and cakes were served. The frozen mousse was served in red and white roses and poppies and the cakes were red, tied with bows of white spun candy. The mints were white and red rose-buds.

Mrs. Ireland's guests for the Whist Saturday afternoon were: Mesdames Charlton Alexander, James Thompson, T. E. Moore, Brice Steele, J. S. Wallingford, Owen Davis, Thompson Tarr, Robert Groggin, Sidney G. Clay, W. E. Board, D. B. Sperry, M. H. Dailey, Henry Butler, F. L. Lapsley, Swift Champ, Chas. Webber, Thomas Fisher, Louis Hooze, J. T. Vansant, Thos. Talbott, W. G. Talbott, B. M. Renick, Howard Edwards, James Duncan Bell; Misses Matilda Alexander, Margaret Bulter, Sallie Lockhart Mary Clay, Nannie Wilson, Nannie Clay, Catchings, Bessie Holladay, and Lucy Simms.

The prizes for the euchre Friday afternoon were: First prize was won by Miss Matilda Alexander, which was an exquisite medallion jewel box; second prize, a handsome painted plate was won by Mrs. Denis Dundon. Mrs. Cordie Parker won the twenty-hand prize which was a hand-carved silver comport. Mrs. Owen Davis won the ten-hand prize, a cut glass and silver toilet bottle. The consolation prize was won by Mrs. W. E. Board, which was a marmalade jar and spoon. The second ten-hand prize was won by Mrs. H. C. Howard, a Kaiser dinner vase.

A dainty lunch of frozen grape and nut salad served in Italian rosettes, sandwiches, frosted almonds, stuffed olives, rolls, oranges and sherry punch was served. Mrs. Ireland's guests were: Mesdames Earl Ashbrook, Charlton Alexander, A. W. Cottingham, Mary Ireland Davis, Owen Davis, Robert Groggin, James E. Clay, Frank P. Clay, B. A. Frank, Swift Champ, Brice Steele, R. K. McCarney, B. M. Renick, James Duncan Bell, W. E. Board, Thompson Tarr, Henry Butler, D. B. Sperry, J. S. Wallingford, Ossian Edwards, Howard Edwards, T. E. Moore, Jr., Cordie Parker, W. T. Talbott, Denis Dundon, W. G. Talbott, H. C. Howard, Welbury Reese Buckner, Woodford, Walter Kenney, W. T. Brooks and James H. Thompson; Misses Matilda Alexander, Nan Wilson, Emma Scott and Mayme Holladay.

DEMOCRATS JUBILANT.

Democrats in Washington are jubilant over the developments in the Railroad Rate Bill, while Republicans are not pleased with the situation. President Roosevelt is coming in for much severe criticism from his party associates.

SOCIETY MEN FIGHT.

Cynthiana was thrown into excitement Friday morning by a pistol and knife duel on one of its principal streets. Shirley Frisbie was shot in both arms by Ashley Ward, a young attorney. The bone in Frisbie's right arm is shattered near the shoulder and it is feared amputation will be necessary. The bullet grazed the left arm, inflicting a flesh wound. Ward was cut on the right side of his face and the edge of his lip.

Both of the young men are prominent in social affairs in that city and it is stated that the trouble arose over certain remarks Frisbie made at an entertainment several nights ago. Ward is a son of Harry Ward one of Kentucky's noted criminal lawyers, and a brother-in-law of Judge W. T. Lafferty.

Ward was arrested and taken before the County Judge and his bond fixed at $1,000 for his appearance in Circuit Court, which began there yesterday.
